ROD1

by Friis & Moltke

Mikkel Bahr, Friis & Moltke

Friis & Moltke is a modern drawing studio, which was founded in 1954 and has been among the leading Danish architectural firms .

Mikke Bahr is a partner of Friis & Moltke, and responsible for the design department.

The studios results are created through cooperation , both with clients and partners , and internally at design studios , with a sensible balance between function, aesthetics and economy - added a good dose of originality.

DESIGN:

Friis & Moltke (2017)

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS:

Top: 22 mm mdf with laminate, linoleum or veneer

Base: Electric height adjustable, with base in white, black or chrome. Feet in chrome, with black or white base (optional)

DESCRIPTION:

ROD1 is a functional electric height adjustable workdesk that offers great comfort and an attractive design. ROD1 is combining a tight design with curves and create interesting contrasts. ROD1 is not an ordinary workdesk, it is a workdesk with one mission: to make your work life more productive and balanced. You can select between different materials and colours. This gives you the opportunity to create an attractive and personal workdesk. If you combine a tabletop in leather with a black frame, you create a very exclusive look that at the same time offers a pleasant comfort.
